Whalers Announce Front Office Change GM shows 'leadership' skills in jumping ship

Team Captain, President, Governor, CEO, and Resident Bastard, Kirk Pohto announced today the Whalers have relieved Jonathan Hunter of his duties as General Manager effective immediately. Kirk Pohto had these comments on the situation, "The Whaler family wishes Jon the best of luck in his current endeavors and thanks him for his years of service as GM and "skater". This time, when I say he's off the team, I mean it."

Jon was unavailable for comment (and unavailable to get the memo because he left early).

Goaltender/extra skater/Minor League Development Director Dave Carrig replaces Jon as GM on an interim basis.

The team's next game is Monday April 16th at Lost Nation.
